Project Presentation Assessment Sheet

PPOL670 – Introduction to Data Science Fall 2019

Student:
Project Name:
Total Score: / 15
The score on each item will take the value of 1 (met expectation), .5 (partially met expectation), 0 (fell below expectation).
Project Items
• Materials were posted on Canvas? score: (score:)
• Materials were generated using R? (score:)
- Student's presentation materials were version controlled on Github? ($score:$)
• Student used professional looking visualizations in the presentation materials:
 Figures were easy to read and understand? (score:) Color scheme made sense; easy to differentiate between colored items (score:) Figures were appropriately proportioned (score:)
Slides
• (1-3 slides) Problem statement and background ($score:$)
• (1-3 slides on the methods/approaches the student considered using (score :)
• (1-3 slides) The methods/tools used (to date), and the rationale for their use (score :)
• 2-4 slides on preliminary results and conclusions (score :)
• 1-2 slides on lessons learned thus far and/or plans to mitigate challenges. ($score:$)
Presentation
 Student was ready with presentation materials (i.e. there was no delay in getting started) (score:) Student was clear, well-paced, and easy to follow when speaking. (score:) Student used the entire allotted time (i.e. the presentation was precisely 8 minutes) (score:)
Feedback
• Student offered feedback/suggestions to other students via the Google Doc or in-class questions $(score:___)$